Learning and Teaching

This course will engage learners in two ways.

Firstly, students will be engaged through the medium of taught face to face lectures, seminars, workshops and practical sessions during the academic year. During these sessions students will have the opportunity to have contact with academics and practitioners immersed in the football industry. Clear links will be made between activities and formative support of the students' assessed work (feed forward) and detailed feedback on work that has been completed will be provided. Further formative assessment opportunities will be provided during face to face sessions and via online discussion activities in which students will be encouraged to share thoughts with each other and with the tutor.

Secondly students will receive materials via the online UCFB|GIS learning platform, where students work through information provided in each session based on the core module content, to introduce key information and concepts. Concepts and ideas are then tested via case studies, reflective practice and online forums.

Assessment

A range of assessment types are used across the course, as appropriate to each module. Assessment is predominantly continuous, employing items that will include academic essays, reports, presentations, portfolios and reflective writing. Applied assessment tasks are used as far as possible to enable students to link theory with practice, thereby assessing knowledge and understanding alongside subject-specific skills and key skills.
